

Commissioner, Paul Strack, Miami Oklahoma

Paul Strack is a citizen of the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma; a life-long resident of Allen County in North-East Indiana. He is a married father of three. Hobbies include reading and the shooting sports. He has held various positions in Tribal and history-focused organizations over the years. He is working now through the Commission to cultivate an atmosphere of mutual respect between Indiana and Tribal Governments, and Tribal Citizens. He served as the Vice Chair of the Indiana Native American Indian Affairs Commission from 2016-2018.